

One of the attractions at this year's ExpoNG at Swanley at the end of October will be the appearance of Dutch modeller Reinier Hendriksen's superb layout Moors End (above), which has already appeared in 009 News.

It joins five 009 layouts and at least four others in scales such as HOn30, 00n3 and 0-16.5 along with specialist society

Continental interest at ExpoNG

stands, the usual wide range of traders, one or two new additions and illustrated talks on narrow gauge topics.

The White Oak Leisure Centre, Swanley, Kent, venue for the show on Saturday October 29th, is also rumoured to be offering this year food and refreshments in keeping with the influx of nearly 1,000 hungry narrow-gauge modelling fans.

Look out for more details in a future issue of 009 News. ■